Regimental Watch To Honour our Proud History

Am Fricceadan Dubh. The Gallant Forty Twa. The Ladies from Hell. Historically identified by a distinct Red Feather Hackle and universally recognised tartan, The Black Watch is the oldest and senior Highland Regiment in the British army.

Its motto, No One Provokes Me with Impunity is fitting and its Regimental Battle honours are an extraordinary chronology of some of the greatest feats of arms in the history of the British army. From its formation over two hundred and seventy years ago, The Black Watch has served with valour world-wide. During World War One some twenty five battalions served in all theatres from the Western Front to Mesopotamia, Palestine in the Middle East and the Salonica Front in Greece. During World War Two the Regiment again fought in all theatres of operations ranging from North West Europe, the Middle East, Crete and Italy to the Far Eastern Jungles of Burma. Iconic names such as St Valery, Riechswald, Normandy, Tobruk, El Alamein, the invasion of Sicily, Monte Cassino and Burma come to mind.

During the Korean War, the Regiment won further honors at the Battle of the Hook. The Black Watch has since been involved in peacekeeping and counter-insurgency operations in various parts of the world; from the Mau Mau Uprising in Kenya to critical peacekeeping roles in Cyprus. It was in Northern Ireland from the beginning until after peace was declared. It served in Kosovo in 2001. It gained the Battle honour Iraq in 2003 and Al Basrah which is the last battle honour to be awarded to a Scottish Regiment. In tribute to its great valour, members of The Black Watch have been awarded 14 Victoria Crosses. It was indeed most proper that The Black Watch was the last British military unit to leave Hong Kong as it played a prominent role in the moving 1997 hand over ceremony.

The Black Watch Regimental Association is now extremely pleased to partner with one of Canada's leading watch designers, Time is Ticking Inc., a mature company with a long and honourable history of creating watches which reflect historical military milestones including the recent 100th anniversary timepieces for the Royal Canadian Navy and Royal Canadian Air Force as well as the 150th anniversary watch for The Black Watch Regiment of Canada and the Victory Europe anniversary Commemorative watch.

To show your continued pride in the regiment, its illustrious history and members, we are now pleased to be able to offer a Limited Edition Black Watch (RHR) regimental watch. The cost to you is only $70.00 Canadian dollars (approx. 45 British pounds) plus 18.00 Canadian dollars postage (approx. 11 British pounds) plus 5 % GST (Canadian Federal Govt. tax similar to VAT).

The watch is being sold far below its actual retail value of approximately $200.00 Canadian dollars. The Black Watch Regimental watch has Seiko movements, raised 24K gold plating on its face, an engraved case back and a designer Speidel leather band offered in black, blue and red in addition to a custom watch band in the striking regimental Black Watch Tartan.

The tartan band is cloth on a leather backing. The watch will be delivered in an embossed velveteen collector's box.

A significant portion of the watch proceeds are being directed to The Black Watch Regimental Association.

No matter what happens... It remains Now and Forever More. The Black Watch.
